If the Chalvue-Arsina Koppal Anjaneya temple is a recent institution founded by private persons and endowed with pudival funds and has no inam lands, as is seen from the Vernacular file received herewith the above one, there can be no objection to the transfer of the inam land from Chelure-Arsina Koppal Anjaneya to Holekere Anjaneya, as the jamabandi accounts of 1803 and 1831 and also the statement furnished by the amildar for the inam Settlement contain the Dewaru's name as Holekere Anjaneya. If this Holekere Anjaneya temple is a branch of the Sri Rama dewaru temple at Haravu, the state of things may continue and there seems to be no reason to transfer the inam land to Sri

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith the file of vernacular papers ending with yadi No. 70 of the 12th Nov 1912 from the Superintendent of Inam Settlements in Mysore, in the matter of making over the Devadaya land Survey No. 11, measuring 2 a - 18 g and assessment at Rs 3-8-0 to the Sri Rama Devaru temple at Hurudu and to state as follows: —

The

The Amildar of Seringapatam in his report No. 667 dated 10 4 1911 (Flag B) brought to notice that land survey no: 11 of Hardanahalli Village was before the introduction of Survey and Settlement being enjoyed by one Narasimha for service as Nagaradigi of the Sri Ramaswamy Temple as the name of the land (ದೇವರಹಳ್ಳಿ) itself indicates, that the Narasimha was doing the puja of one Holekare Anjaneya a branch of Sri Ramaswamy Temple (Flag D) also, that some time after the said Narasimha left the place and settled himself in Chalinur Arsinkuppal where he employed himself as pujari of an other Anjaneya that as the man who was doing puja in the Hole Kere Anjaneya Swami's Temple happened to be the pujari of Chalinur Arsinkuppal Anjaneya at the time of Survey and Settlement the land (ಖ ೨೦ ಬಿ ಕ್ಲ ೮)) of Sri Rama Devaru Temple at Harsha was by a mistake of fact represented to belong to Chalinur Arsinkuppal Anjaneya during the Inam Settlement the land was made in the name of Chalinur Arsin Kuppal

The Villagers of Haraver prayed that the land be restored to the Sri Ramadevaru temple. The Amildar after a careful enquiry has come to the conclusion that the land belonged to Sri Ramadevaru temple. Narasimha now pujari of the Lune Arsikoppal Anjaneya has also deposed that the land was being enjoyed by him for God services in the Sri Rama Devaru temple at Haraver, and that he has no objection to the land now restored to that

The Sub Division office French Rock supports the views of the Amildar (Flag C).

Under the circumstances I am also of opinion that the land be restored to the Sri Rama Devarus temple and request that you will be so good as to obtain Government orders thereon and Communicate the same to the Inam Superintendent for needful changes being made in the Quit rent Register.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Assistant

Deputy Commissioner,
